

OXFORD DEMOCRAT.

PARIS, JUNE 11, 1844.

The great popular party is already rallied almost en masse around the banner which is leading the party to its final triumph. The few that still lag will soon be rallied under its ample folds. On that banner is inscribed: FREE TRADE! LOW DUTIES! NO BARRIER BETWEEN BANKS! ECONOMY! REFINEMENT! AND STRICT ADHERENCE TO THE CONSTITUTION. Victory in such a cause will be great and glorious; and if its principles be faithfully and firmly adhered to, after it is achieved, much will be reduced to the honor of those by whom it will have been won; and long will it perpetuate the liberty and prosperity of the country. — Calhoun.

Oxford County Convention.

The DEMOCRATIC REPUBLICANS of the several Towns and Plantations in the County of Oxford, and also the Towns and Plantations composing Oxford Senatorial District, are requested to send Delegates to a Convention to be held at the COURT HOUSE, in Paris, on THURSDAY, the FOURTH DAY OF JULY next, at ten o'clock A. M., for the purpose of selecting Candidates for Senators and other County Officers.

All Towns and Plantations which give fifty Democratic votes, or a less number, will send one Delegate each; over fifty and under one hundred and twenty-five, two; over one hundred and twenty-five and under two hundred and fifty, three; over two hundred and fifty and under four hundred four; over four hundred, five Delegates each.

May 27, 1844.

CALLS.—The Democratic Republicans of Paris are requested to meet at the Town House on Saturday, the twenty-ninth inst. at five o'clock P. M. for the purpose of choosing four Delegates to attend the Oxford County and Senatorial Conventions to be held at the Court House, in said Paris, on Thursday, the fourth day of July next, and to transact such other business as may come before them. A punctual and full attendance is requested. Per Order.

We this day place at the head of our columns the honored names of those who have been selected by the National Convention as the most fit leaders of the great Democratic Party. Each name is a tower of strength and repository of talent and virtue. We think the Convention has done its duty nobly. It has accomplished in the best possible manner the great objects for which it assembled. Until the news of the proceedings of the Convention arrived, we had looked upon the nomination of Mr. Van Buren as settled beyond a doubt; and had therefore prepared ourselves for such a result, although it did not accord with our views of duty or discretion. Mr. Van Buren would have led the forces of the Democracy most gallantly to the fight, and without doubt gained a glorious victory; but under the present leaders we hope to cripple the enemy so he will not make another political effort during this or even the next generation.

We have no room to say any thing of the Nominees in this number, more than that they are good men and true—whose characters are above reproach—whose talents are of the highest order, and whose services during the stormy period of Jackson's Administration were conspicuous before their fellow-citizens. Their history, for a great number of years past, has been identified with the best interests of our common country. We speak for each a hearty and unwavering support from the great Democratic Party.

The news from all quarters is that the friends of the Democracy are satisfied, and rejoice at the prospects before them. POLK and DALLAS are just the men for the times. We hail their nomination with joy, and in full faith that we shall see them elevated to the highest offices in the gift of the people.

The Nomination.—We congratulate our readers on the favorable prospects before them, and more especially in relation to the nomination of Polk and Dallas. For this glorious result we are to thank the "sober second thought." We take an honest pride in looking back to the commencement of the contest, and reviewing the principles on which we supposed the nomination should be based. We early contended that a nomination should be made which would unite all true Democrats, and secure the ascendancy of Democratic principles. Such considerations have finally triumphed, and success has consequently been made certain.

Mr. Polk we are happy to say is a bosom friend of General Jackson. While Speaker of the House of Representatives and Chairman of the committee of Ways and Means, during his Administration, Mr. Polk was one of his most efficient aids. He is likewise a personal friend of Mr. Calhoun, Mr. Van Buren, and many other distinguished Democrats throughout the United States. His principles are of the true Jeffersonian stamp. On the "construction of the Constitution," "State Rights," "Tariff," "Distribution," "Bank," &c., his sentiments accord with those of Mr. Calhoun. His character and services, are such as will receive universal approbation.

Mr. Dallas has also all the qualifications which would adorn the second office of this Republic. His principles and services as a Democrat are beyond reproach or censure.

Democrats with such men as leaders, what can we not accomplish! Under such names, what objects are too high to be achieved! What battles, with our foes, too mighty to be fought! Or what victories too glorious to be won! Enroll your names then under the Republican banner, whose motto is "Safety to our country," "Freedom," "Justice," "Equal Rights." Polk and Dallas are just the spirits to guide the noble Ship of State, and secure to us and after generations the benefits to be derived from such principles. Let our watch-word be "Polk and Dallas must be elected." Three cheers for Polk and Dallas!

"Polk and Dallas is surely right!"
In spite of Clay and Freminghuysen!
"Poor Whigs! what pisen!"

STATE NOMINATIONS.

At a Democratic Caucus of the members of the Legislature some time last winter, nominations were made for Governor and Electors at large. HUGH J. ANDERSON, of Belfast, was nominated for Governor, and JAMES W. BRADBURY, of Augusta, and JOHN STICKNEY, of Calais, were nominated Electors at large. We this day present their names to our readers at the head of our columns.

Further Matthew, the great temperance Apostle of Ireland, has abandoned his intention of visiting this country, owing to the want of his services at home.

Severance Speech, made for the purpose of uniting the Liberty party on "Clay" and "Husen," has been sent over the State by Caydon.

RATIFICATION MEETING IN N. Y. CITY.

An overwhelming gathering of the Democracy took place at the city Hall on the 7th inst. At least 25,000 Democrats were present. The meeting was organized by the choice of C. P. White, President, besides several Vice Presidents and Secretaries. Speeches were made by B. F. Butler, G. Melville, and others. The remarks of the gentleman who addressed the vast concourse were received with the most enthusiastic cheering. Mr. Melville read a letter from Mr. Van Buren, which showed his concurrence in the nomination, and which breathed the warmest hopes for the union and success of the Democratic party.

A similar gathering was held in Hudson county, at Hoboken. This meeting was addressed by several distinguished persons, all of whom spoke in the highest praise of the Democratic Nominees.

A similar meeting has been held at Brunswick, in this State. The Democracy all over the United States are responding nobly to the doings of the National Convention. All doubt as to the success of the Democratic party are at an end. Our campaign has opened under the most encouraging auspices. The political horizon is no longer dark and dubious, but every thing comes forth in the broad light of noonday. We can be victorious; and we shall be, if we are true to our cause. We exhort our Democratic friends to be "up and doing." The "Coun" is not yet tired. He must not only be tired, but skinned, and you must do it.

We copy the following from the Trenton Emporium, a Tyler paper. It is a sign among others which indicates a general rush to the support of the Democratic cause.

"We go for principles and measures, irrespectively of men, though they be dear as a father, and though it come in contact with our interests or self. Consequently we go for the nominee of the regular Democratic Convention. We cannot now give the name of the nominee, but we do know that it was truly Democratic; and in the language of Napoleon, when speaking of the noble Poles, 'they fought like devils,' each for his favorite, until it was evident that no one that was first proposed, and fixed upon by the party in any of the states, could possibly get a third vote, then the name of JAMES K. POLK, Ex-Governor of Tennessee, and Ex-Speaker of the U. S. House of Representatives, was presented as a candidate; and with a glorious unanimity, every Delegate, from every county and every state, said Amen! even so let it be. We now, in accordance with all our former life and political acts, lay our favorite John Tyler, at the foot of the mast, with Cass, Johnson, Buchanan, Stewart, and Van Buren, and nail at our mast-head the names of POLK and DALLAS; and with them as our leaders, we pledge ourselves to go to the death against Clay and Freminghuysen."

The Richmond Enquirer has the following in relation to the Nominees. It is most cheering.

"Mr. Polk's nomination has been received at Baltimore, at Washington, and at Richmond, with enthusiasm. It heals all division; unites our party with bonds of iron. It thwarts every hope which the whigs had indulged of discord and divisions. It blasts the election of Henry Clay, and saves our country from the sceptre of the dictator. Mr. Polk is true to all republican principles, and he is the friend of Texas. We shall go to the encounter with renovated spirits, and with indomitable energies. He will carry Virginia by thousands, and the Union by an overwhelming majority."

PORTLAND AMERICAN. This sheet came to us last week greatly enlarged and much improved in appearance. We are glad to see this evidence of its prosperity. The American is a first rate paper, and has not in the least degree lost its influence, character, or interest, since changing hands.

Gen. Todd offered the "Olive branch" to the editor of the Argus last week in fine style. This is a pledge of union and harmony in our ranks. We are glad to see this sacrifice made, and all former prejudices laid aside, in order that our cause may be successful and our union be preserved.

METHODIST GENERAL CONFERENCE. The Methodists are now holding a General Conference, composed principally of Bishops and Clergy from all parts of the United States. Soon after their organization a resolution was introduced requiring the dismissal or resignation of Bishop Andrews from the office of Bishop on account of his connection with Slavery. Mr. A. had become a slave holder by marriage after he was chosen Bishop. The Clergy of the North contended that no one should hold that office who is in any way connected with Slavery, and that it is in opposition to their former course. The Clergy of the South contend that his connection with slavery should make no difference. Here is more sectional division on account of Abolitionism. The result is not known.

Since the above was written we learn that the Conference has decided to request Bishop Andrews to withdraw from performing the functions of his office.

Late from Havana.—The Brig Midas arrived at Baltimore on the 2d inst. from Havana, whence she sailed for Portland on the 16th. The Capt. brings intelligence that the markets at Havana remained without much variation. Our readers are aware that Melacases has risen of late, owing to the supposed effect the recent drought would have on the cane crop. But although the drought continues the prospect of the crop was good. Therefore the price of Melacases will not probably be much higher than at present.

Mr. Willie, of the Liberty Standard, says he believes we shall correct our assertion that (Mr. W.) "thinks a man cannot be a Christian without being a Liberty party man." We do not wish to assert this as a position of the Standard. We inferred it, however, from the duties he and his correspondents lay down in relation to Christians, ministers and partisans. If the inference is illogical, we stand corrected.

The District Court is now in session at this place.

THE VIEWS OF A NEUTRAL.

The New York Republican is neutral as it regards parties, says:

"The opposition to the present tariff is the legitimate result of its ultra nature, and even Mr. Clay has expressed himself in favor of its modification. Hence, when the Presidential election shall have taken place, there is very little doubt that no matter which party may be the ascendant, a favorable change will take place at the next session of Congress."

ARRIVAL OF THE CALEDONIA.

This steam ship arrived at Boston on Saturday from Liverpool, whence she sailed on the 19th ult. She brought about seventy passengers. The news she brings is not highly important.

The markets in England were dull, and Cotton was much depressed, and had experienced a further decline in price, of 1-4 to 3-8.

The state of trade in the manufacturing districts was satisfactory to the manufacturers.

IRELAND. The legal arguments on the motion for a new trial, in the case of O'Connell and his colleagues, were closed on the 11th ult. On Tuesday the 14th, the Lord Chief Justice stated that he could not give judgment in the case till next term, which commences May 22d, and ends June 12th.

The news of the signing of the Texas treaty had thrown the British into convulsions.

FRANCE. We find but very little of interest in the accounts from France. The crops were represented as very flourishing.

SPAIN. A new ministry has been formed at Madrid, under Narvaez, and with the promised support of Bravo and his friends.

Democratic National Convention.

FIRST DAY.
Baltimore, May 27, 1844.—The Democratic National Convention assembled in Old Federal Hall. At 12 o'clock, Mr. Saunders, of N. Carolina, called the Convention to order and named Mr. Wright, of Penn. to preside in the organization, which was adopted, and Wm. F. Ritchie, Jr. of Va. was chosen Secretary. Mr. Saunders also moved the adoption of the rules and orders of the National Conventions of 1831, and 1835. These rules embraced the two third provision, requiring a vote of two thirds to secure a nomination, which was suspended for the purpose of prayers, which were offered by Rev. Mr. Johns, of Baltimore, of the Episcopal Church, followed by the reading of the 101st Psalm, after which the discussion was resumed. The delegation from each State were required to appoint one of their number as a committee to report the names and number and qualifications of the delegates from their respective States. The following gentlemen were appointed by the respective delegations:—

Maine, Stetson; New Hampshire, Hubbard; Massachusetts, Bancroft; Vermont, Hunt; Rhode Island, Ballou; Connecticut, Toucey; New York, Smith; New Jersey, Kennedy; Pennsylvania, Griggs; Maryland, Howard; Delaware, Sutton; Virginia, Roane; North Carolina, Hill; South Carolina, (no delegates appeared)—It is understood they are in the city, but will decline to take their seats; Alabama, Shields; Mississippi, Walker; Louisiana, Leonard; Tennessee, Carr; Johnson; Kentucky, Johnson; Arkansas, Fulton; Ohio, Bartley; Indiana, Wright; Illinois, Dunlap; Missouri, Price; Michigan, Wilson; Georgia, Cole.

At half past one the convention adjourned till four o'clock. Met according to adjournment. Mr. B. F. Butler, of New York, made a powerful speech against the two-thirds and in favor of the majority principle, when nominating. While he was speaking, the committee on officers returned, and a motion was made to suspend the debate, to allow the committee to report, which was agreed to, and

Mr. Clifford, of Maine, as Chairman, reported the following as the list of officers agreed upon by the Committee:—
President—HENDRICKS B. WRIGHT, of Pa.
Vice President—Stephen Emery, of Maine; Henry Hubbard, N. H.; Henry H. Childs, of N. Y.; Luther B. Hunt, Vt.; Olney Ballou, R. I.; R. J. Ingersoll, Conn.; S. Young, N. Y.; J. E. Edsell, N. J.; J. Doonan, Pa.; Wm. H. Frick, Md.; James M. Sutton, Del.; Wm. H. Roane, Va.; R. M. Saunders, N. C.; John H. Howard, Ga.; J. C. Shields, Ala.; Powhatan Ellis, Miss.; Thos. M. Williams, La.; Cave Johnson, Tenn.; Llan Boyd, Ky.; Wm S. Fulton, Ark.; Nich. Schooner, Ohio; E. A. Brown, Ind.; James Snow, Ill.; C. Callman, Mo.; R. S. Wilson, Michigan.

Secretaries—Wm. F. Ritchie, Va.; Thomas B. Michol, N. Y.; Geo. A. Vroom, N. J.; N. A. Bradford, Miss; Henry H. Carroll, N. H.; Wm. D. Morgan, Ohio. The report was unanimously adopted, and on motion the Convention adjourned to meet again at 9 o'clock to-morrow morning.

SECOND DAY.
At nine o'clock the Speaker elect in taking the chair addressed the Convention in a spirited and heart-stirring manner. He urged upon the members to be calm in their deliberations—to nominate a candidate, and to do it like Democrats. After considerable debate in regard to the majority and two-thirds principles, the vote, on Mr. Saunders' motion to adopt the rules and orders of the Conventions of 1831 and 1835, providing for the two-thirds rule, was taken and the motion adopted. The States voted by their chairmen, each State being allowed the privilege of voting either a split ticket, or to be controlled by the opinions of their delegation, as to voting unanimously or not. The vote on the adoption of the rules and orders stood as follows:

States.	Yeas.	Nays.
Maine	1	0
New Hampshire	5	0
Massachusetts	3	0
Vermont	2	0
Rhode Island	2	0
Connecticut	3	0
New York	7	35
New Jersey	12	13
Pennsylvania	12	6
Delaware	3	0
Virginia	17	2
North Carolina	10	0
Georgia	9	0
Alabama	10	0
Mississippi	5	0
Louisiana	13	0
Tennessee	12	0
Kentucky	12	0
Ohio	12	23
Indiana	9	0
Illinois	6	0
Michigan	3	0
Missouri	3	7
Arkansas	3	0
Total	143	116

So the old rule including the two-thirds rule, were adopted, when the vote was put for the unanimous adoption of the resolution, and carried with but three dissenting voices.

The New York Delegates who had strenuously opposed the resolution, voted unanimously in its favor.

An attempt was made to go into balloting for the Presidency, but it was found impracticable, and on motion, the convention adjourned to half past three o'clock P. M.

Afternoon Session.—Met according to adjournment, and after some conversational remarks which occupied about half an hour, the Convention proceeded to vote for a candidate for the Presidency. There were seven ballottings and no choice.

Between the ballottings the excitement waxed high, but every thing was conducted in good order. Immediately after the result of the second ballot was announced, a gentleman moved that Mr. Van Buren, having received a majority of the votes on the first ballot, be declared the nominee of the Convention. Decided to be out of order. Between the subsequent ballottings, various attempts were made to adjourn—to postpone—to take a recess, &c., but they all failed. At about a quarter before six o'clock, and just as the result of the seventh ballot was made known, all was confusion, amid which the convention adjourned.

THIRD DAY.
A motion was made to go into an eighth ballot by some gentleman from Pennsylvania. Mr. Tibbatts, from Ky. arose and withdrew the name of Richard M. Johnson, as a candidate. Some desultory discussion followed on points of order. Gov. Hubbard, of N. H. nominated JAMES K. POLK, of Tennessee, as a candidate to the convention for the Presidency. It was decided to proceed to the eighth ballot, which stood as follows:—

M. Van Buren, received	101 votes.
Lewis Cass	114 "
James K. Polk	41 "
James Buchanan	2 "
John C. Calhoun	2 "

No choice. Mr. B. F. Butler, of N. Y. asked permission that the delegation from that State might retire for consultation, and that no vote be taken till a small return. After some debate in regard to delay of time, &c. the New York delegation retired for the purpose of consultation.

The following is the result of the ninth ballot.

Polk.	Cass.	Van Buren.	Johnson.	Butler.

Besides the above votes there were two votes given for Mr. Van Buren, by Ohio, two for Mr. Calhoun, and one for Mr. Morton, of Massachusetts, by some other State. After the eighth ballot, and during the ninth, the New York and Virginia delegations retired. On their return Mr. Boone, on the part of Virginia, said he had been instructed to declare the result of the convention, but would prefer waiting till New York was at her post. The delegation from that state returning, Mr. R. after a few remarks gave the vote of that state to Mr. Polk.

Mr. Butler, of New York, in response, spoke of the reluctance with which they yielded their favorite, and produced a letter from Mr. Van Buren, which he had received while in this city—and kept a profound secret even from his colleagues—authorizing him to withdraw his name, if it interposed any obstacle in the way of a unanimous selection. This gave a different turn to the proceedings, and those delegations who had cast their votes for various others, immediately changed their votes. The result was, that a unanimous vote was given in favor of Mr. Polk. South Carolina, though not given in the table, was given by Mr. Pickens, and Mr. Elmore, who came in before the final announcement was made.

Scarce had a cheer ascended, when it was stated by a member of the "meeting," that a despatch had been sent to Washington by the telegraph, conveying intelligence of the nomination, and that an answer had been received from the Democratic members there assembled, which

Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills.

THE virtues of these Pills are now generally known, and are acknowledged by their great popularity and extensive circulation, and few who peruse this article will be found unacquainted with some proof of their real excellence, and many will be ready to add the testimonials of their own experience in favor of this delightful medicine.

WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS are designed to ASSIST NATURE in restoring the various organs to a healthy action, by CLEANSING the Stomach and bowels, and PURIFYING the whole System from those morbid and corrupt humors which in most cases are the cause of disease, and thus gives to the patient health for sickness, and cheerfulness for despondency.

The unsurpassed success which has attended the use of these Pills has introduced some unprincipled persons to manufacture a SPURIOUS ARTICLE, which they endeavor to palm on the unsuspecting as the GENUINE MEDICINE, hence the importance of purchasing only of the regular advertised Agents. N. B. Remember Thomas Crocker is the only regular authorized Agent for the sale of the above invaluable medicine in this Village, and do not purchase elsewhere, if you would be sure of obtaining the GENUINE MEDICINE.—JMS
